Dear General Councils Office,

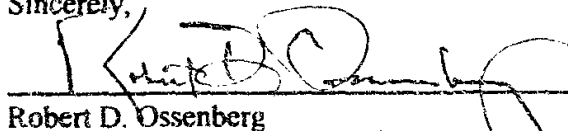

I received your letter dated June 16, 1999, reference MUR4902 on June 19, 1999. In response to the letter, I apologize for the unintentional error of sending the Quayle 2000 committee two checks; one issued in my name, Robert D. Ossenberg, and one in my wife's name, Myra Glenda Ossenberg in the amount of $1,000.00 each from my own personal account. I was not aware of the campaign finance law that prohibits this.

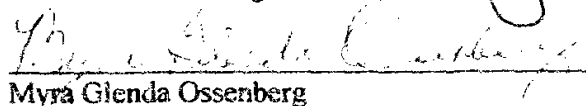

Upon receipt of your letter, please be advised that I contacted the Quayle 2000 headquarters, as they had no knowledge that the contribution did not come from a joint account. Quayle's campaign committee has assured me they will refund the $1,000.00 donation given in the name of Myra Glenda Ossenberg.

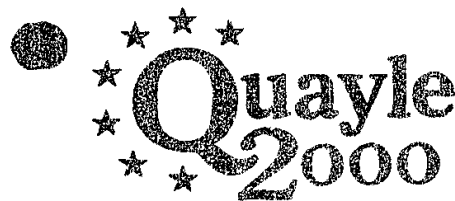

My wife and I have been long time supporters of Dan Quayle. On February 24, 1999, the issue date of the cashiers checks in question, my wife was still incapacitated due to a recent major foot surgery. I was running some errands due to the fact that I was leaving town for a few weeks and decided to tend to the matter of Quayle's donation. Therefore, I went to the bank and had two cashier checks issued in the amount of $1,000.00 each, one in my name and one in my wife's name. My wife was fully aware of the fact that we had agreed to donate the above amount to the Quayle 2000 committee.

I sincerely hope that you will consider this matter mute, as I now know the campaign finance law concerning donations. I assure you that this error will not occur again. If you should have any further questions concerning this matter please contact me, as I would prefer to avoid any further repercussions. My wife and I thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Ossenberg
